

Kingdom Stewards Network

Blessing Declarations

October 24, 2026

TOPIC: Rebuild Social Relationships

These Blessing Declarations are submitted to you by the Kingdom Stewards Network \(KSN\) which is a statewide prayer movement empowering believers to speak God's word over their territory (home, neighborhood, church, city, county, etc.). The vision is to stake God's claim for His Kingdom on earth in Colorado as it is in Heaven. It also entails shifting the spiritual atmosphere of every Colorado community so that each region aligns with their redemptive gifts and purposes and more people come to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Blessing Saturdays

The mission of each Blessing Saturday is to engage believers in every community to individually (or with friends/family), to speak the blessings of God's Word over our state. This is in accordance with what is written in Isaiah 55:11, "so is My word that goes out from My mouth: It will not return to me empty but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it."

Instructions:

When? 2nd and 4th Saturdays at 9am

Where? At a location outside.

Preparation: Be sure to spend 10+ minutes praising God and worshipping Him and positioning yourself seated with Christ in heavenly places (Eph 2:6) before speaking the Declarations. Enthroned Jesus as King over yourself and your territory and invite Him to intercede with You today.

How? To be declared out loud with boldness and confidence, on your own or with others.

Pause: Don't rush through the Blessing Declarations. Pause after each one taking time to listen for Holy Spirit's input regarding anything He might want you to add.

Rebuild Social Relationships

Rebuilding social relationships begins with a renewed commitment to love, forgiveness, humility, and reconciliation with neighbors, friends, business people and those we encounter every day. God calls His people to pursue peace, restore broken relationships, and live in unity with one another. We must be willing to forgive offenses, extend grace, speak truth in love, and seek understanding rather than allowing bitterness, pride, or division to separate us. As we bear with one another in love and make every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, relationships can be restored and communities strengthened (Ephesians 4:2–3, 31–32). Scripture teaches us that love covers a multitude of sins (1 Peter 4:8) and that, as far as it depends on us, we are to live peaceably with all people (Romans 12:18). As individuals, families, churches, and communities return to God's principles for relationships, walls of division can come down, trust can be rebuilt, and a foundation of mutual respect, compassion, and unity can be established for the good of society and the glory of God.

Blessing Declarations Oct 24: Rebuild Social Relationships

1. We declare that a glorious wave of forgiveness and compassion now blesses every Colorado community as it is written in Ephesians 4:31–32 “Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ, God forgave you.”
2. We bless Believers across Colorado to rebuild community foundations as it is written in Isaiah 58:12 “Those from among you shall build the old waste places; You shall raise up the foundations of many generations; And you shall be called the Repairer of the Breach, The Restorer of Streets to Dwell In”.
3. We now bless believers statewide with the wisdom that social relationships within churches and cities matter as much as spiritual duties, as it is written in Matthew 5:23-24, “Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother and then come and offer your gift”.
4. We bless every Colorado city with people who seek reconciliation and peace between individuals inside churches and businesses as written in Romans 12:11-19 “Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everyone. If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone. Do not take revenge, my dear friends, but leave room for God’s wrath, for it is written: “It is mine to avenge; I will repay,” says the Lord.”
5. We bless Colorado Believers to seek the precious and refreshing virtues of unity in their social relationships as it is written in Psalm 133:1-2 “How good and pleasant it is when God’s people live together in unity. It is like precious oil poured on the head, running down on the beard, running down on Aaron’s beard, down on the collar of his robe. It is as if the dew of Hermon were falling on Mount Zion. For there the Lord bestows his blessing, even life forevermore.”
6. We bless the Ekklesia statewide to be ministers of reconciliation as it is written in 2 Corinthians 5:18-19 “Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation, that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.”
7. We bless the Church in every Colorado community to be in harmony and agreement despite minor theological differences as it is written in 1 Corinthians 1:10 “But I urge and entreat you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in perfect harmony and full agreement in what you say, and that there be no dissensions or factions or divisions among you, but that you be perfectly united in your common understanding and in your opinions and judgments.”
8. We declare that blessing of accountability now be released into every Colorado community so that Believers support one another as it is written in Galatians 6:1-2 “Brothers, if anyone is caught in any sin, you who are spiritual [that is, you who are responsive to the guidance of the Spirit] are to restore such a person in a spirit of gentleness [not with a sense of superiority or self-righteousness], keeping a watchful eye on yourself, so that you are not tempted as well. Carry one another’s burdens and in this way you will fulfill the requirements of the law of Christ [that is, the law of Christian love]”.
9. We bless Believers statewide with greater emotional and spiritual maturity to protect relationships through love, forgiveness, and discretion rather than spreading hurtful gossip as written in Proverbs 17:9, “He who covers a transgression seeks love, but he who repeats a matter separates friends”.
10. We declare that Believers statewide are now moved to be serious and watchful in prayer for one another as it is written in 1 Peter 4:7-8 “But the end of all things is at hand; therefore be serious and watchful in your prayers. And above all things have fervent love for one another, for love will cover a multitude of sins”.

11. We bless every Colorado Believer to “not be overcome by evil but overcome evil with good” as it is written in Romans 12:21.
12. We bless Believers in every Colorado city to be one in Christ Jesus as heirs of God’s Kingdom as written in Galatians 3:26-29 “For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ’s, then you are Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise”.
13. We bless Colorado Believers as they now make God’s joy complete as it is written in Philippians 2:2-4 “fulfill my joy by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others”.
14. We bless the Colorado Ekklesia to be peacemakers – also called Sons of God as it is written in Matthew 5:9 “Blessed are the peacemakers, For they shall be called sons of God.”
15. We ask that every Colorado Believer be blessed with the mind of Christ that they live out God’s word in James 1:19-20 “So then, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath; for the wrath of man does not produce the righteousness of God.”
16. We bless every member of the Colorado Ekklesia to increase in emotional maturity as it is written in James 1: 2-4 “My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing.”

Receive The Bi-Monthly Blessing Declarations

Did you receive these Blessing Declarations from someone else?

Would you like to receive them by email for yourself each month?

Sign Up Now <https://www.coprays.org/ksn>

QUESTIONS? Contact Amy Everette amy@coprays.org