KSN

Kingdom Stewards Network

Blessing Declarations

November 14, 2026

TOPIC: Rebuilding Government Through Self-Governance

These Blessing Declarations are submitted to you by the Kingdom Stewards Network (KSN) which is a statewide prayer movement empowering believers to speak God's word over their territory (home, neighborhood, church, city, county, etc.). The vision is to stake God's claim for His Kingdom on earth in Colorado as it is in Heaven to shift the spiritual atmosphere of every Colorado community. We believe that the shift will allow each region of our state to better align with its redemptive gifts and purposes causing more people come to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Blessing Saturdays

The mission of each Blessing Saturday is to engage believers in every community to individually (or with friends/family), to speak the blessings of God's Word over our state. This is in accordance with what is written in Isaiah 55:11, "so is My word that goes out from My mouth: It will not return to me empty but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it."

Instructions:

When? 2nd and 4th Saturdays at 9am

Where? At a location outside.

Preparation: Be sure to spend 10+ minutes praising God and worshipping Him and positioning yourself seated with Christ in heavenly places (Eph 2:6) before speaking the Declarations. Enthrone Jesus as King over yourself and your territory and invite Him to intercede with You today.

How? To be declared out loud with boldness and confidence, on your own or with others.

Pause: Don't rush through the Blessing Declarations. Pause after each one taking time to listen for Holy Spirit's input regarding anything He might want you to add.

Self-Governance

Rebuilding civic government begins with self-governance: allowing God to govern our heart, mind, attitude, words, and actions. It is rooted in obedience to God's authority and is expressed in disciplined, orderly living, self-control, and self-discipline.

Personal self-governance begins with surrender to the Lordship of Jesus Christ and obedience to His Word. It is a God-given capacity and discipline, cultivated through the Spirit, to act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with God (Micah 6:8). Scripture calls each person to be "slow to anger" and to exercise self-control (James 1:19–20; Galatians 5:22–23), qualities that strengthen families and communities before they shape public institutions. Leaders, too, are charged to seek wisdom, serve rather than dominate, and protect the vulnerable (Proverbs 11:14; Mark 10:42–45; Isaiah 1:17). When citizens and leaders practice these commitments, government can be rebuilt on integrity, shared responsibility, and justice—so that authority serves the common good and honors the dignity of every person (Romans 13:3–4; Proverbs 29:4).

Blessing Declarations Nov 14

Rebuilding Government Through Self-Governance

1. We thank You and praise You Lord God that, as the first step in personal self-governance, Romans 10:9 tells us that every Coloradan is blessed with the choice to confess Jesus as Lord.
2. As it is written in Romans 5:5, we bless every Coloradan with a willing heart to receive God's love which is freely given because, "the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us."
3. We bless every Colorado believer with spirit-empowered self-control as it is written in Galatians 5:22-23, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Against such there is no law."
4. Proverbs 25:28 tells us that "Whoever has no rule over his own spirit Is like a city broken down, without walls," so we now bless every Colorado believer with self-control, that they are not vulnerable to ungodly, worldly influence.
5. We invite believers statewide to now embody Godly self-control as written in 1 Corinthians 9:27, "But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become disqualified."
6. We bless the Colorado Ecclesia with the wisdom and revelation of Proverbs 16:32 which tells us that "He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city."
7. Romans 8:7 tells us "...the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot." As a counter measure, we now invite every Coloradan to die to their sinful nature (the flesh) and live by the truth of Romans 12:2 which tells us "And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God."
8. As it is written in Titus 1:7-8, we bless Believers statewide to manage their own households before they seek responsibility for the church, city or state, "for a bishop must be blameless, as a steward of God, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money, but hospitable, a lover of what is good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled."
9. As it is written in 2 Corinthians 10:5, we bless every Colorado believer to "...demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ."
10. We bless Colorado believers to let go of ungodly anger as it is written in James 1:19-20, "...be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger." And as written in Ephesians 4:31-32, "Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you."
11. We bless the Colorado Ecclesia with the willingness to encourage one another as written in Ephesians 4:29 which tells us to, "let no corrupt communication proceed from your mouth, but only what builds others up."
12. We bless people across Colorado with renewed desire to be in God's Presence as written in Psalm 15:1-3, "O Lord, who shall sojourn in your tent? Who shall dwell on your holy hill? He who walks blamelessly and does what is right and speaks truth in his heart; who does not slander with his tongue and does no evil to his neighbor, nor takes up a reproach against his friend."

13. As it is written in Micah 6:8, we ask Lord God for a wave of Godly humility to flow across every person in and from Colorado because, “He has told you, O man, what is good .... to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God.”
14. We bless the truth that doing what is right changes the world around us as written in 1 Peter 2:15, “for it is the will of God that by doing right you may silence (muzzle, gag) the [culpable] ignorance and irresponsible criticisms of foolish people.”
15. We declare that self-governance across Colorado will lead to the healing of our land as it is written in 2 Chronicles 7:14, “If God's people humble themselves, pray, seek His face, and turn from wicked ways, God promises to hear, forgive, and heal their land.”
16. We encourage every Colorado believer to receive the transforming blessing of the written Word of God as described in 2 Timothy 3:16-17 which tells us that, “All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work.” ESV
17. We encourage every believer statewide with the truth of Proverbs 4:23 which tells us to, “Guard your heart with all diligence, for out of it springs the issues of life. My son, pay attention to what I say; turn your ear to my words. Do not let them out of your sight, keep them within your heart; for they are life to those who find them and health to one’s whole body. Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it.”
18. We bless Colorado, believers to never be shaken as it is written in written in Psalm 15:1-5. “O Lord, who may lodge [as a guest] in Your tent? Who may dwell [continually] on Your holy hill? He who walks with integrity and strength of character, and works righteousness, And speaks and holds truth in his heart. He does not slander with his tongue, Nor does evil to his neighbor, Nor takes up a reproach against his friend; In his eyes an evil person is despised, But he honors those who fear the Lord [and obediently worship Him with awe-inspired reverence and submissive wonder]. He keeps his word even to his own disadvantage and does not change it [for his own benefit]; He does not put out his money at interest [to a fellow Israelite], And does not take a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things will never be shaken.”

Receive The Bi-Monthly Blessing Declarations

Did you receive these Blessing Declarations from someone else?

Would you like to receive them by email for yourself each month?

Sign Up Now https://www.coprays.org/ksn

QUESTIONS? Contact Amy Everette amy@coprays.org