Blessing Declarations

October 10, 2026

TOPIC: Rebuild Personal Relationships

These Blessing Declarations are submitted to you by the Kingdom Stewards Network \(KSN\) which is a statewide prayer movement empowering believers to speak God's word over their territory (home, neighborhood, church, city, county, etc.). The vision is to stake God's claim for His Kingdom on earth in Colorado as it is in Heaven. It also entails shifting the spiritual atmosphere of every Colorado community so that each region aligns with their redemptive gifts and purposes and more people come to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Blessing Saturdays

The mission of each Blessing Saturday is to engage believers in every community to individually (or with friends/family), to speak the blessings of God's Word over our state. This is in accordance with what is written in Isaiah 55:11, "so is My word that goes out from My mouth: It will not return to me empty but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it."

Instructions:

When? 2nd and 4th Saturdays at 9am

Where? At a location outside.

Preparation: Be sure to spend 10+ minutes praising God and worshipping Him and positioning yourself seated with Christ in heavenly places (Eph 2:6) before speaking the Declarations. Enthroned Jesus as King over yourself and your territory and invite Him to intercede with You today.

How? To be declared out loud with boldness and confidence, on your own or with others.

Pause: Don't rush through the Blessing Declarations. Pause after each one taking time to listen for Holy Spirit's input regarding anything He might want you to add.

Rebuild Personal Relationships

God calls us to live in love, unity, forgiveness, and peace with one another. We are instructed to "be reconciled" with our brother (Matthew 5:23–24), to forgive as the Lord has forgiven us (Colossians 3:13), and to "make every effort to keep yourselves united in the Spirit, binding yourselves together with peace" (Ephesians 4:3). God calls us to put away bitterness, anger, harsh words, and unforgiveness, and instead to be "kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another" (Ephesians 4:31–32). Rebuilding relationships requires humility—considering others as more important than ourselves (Philippians 2:3–4)—and choosing love, which "covers all offenses" (Proverbs 10:12). As far as it depends on us, we are called to "live at peace with everyone" (Romans 12:18). When we allow God to heal broken relationships, walls of division come down, hearts are restored, trust is rebuilt, and His love is visibly demonstrated. The result will be the Truth of Psalm 133:1 which tell us "How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity!"

Blessing Declarations Oct 10: Rebuild Personal Relationships

1. Lord God, we now bless the Colorado Ecclesia to share the love of Jesus as written in John 13:34-35 “A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you: so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are My disciples, if you love one another”.
2. We bless every Coloradan to seek God through repentance as written in Acts 3:19-20, “Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord, and that He may send the Messiah, who has been appointed for you—even Jesus”.
3. We bless every Believer in Colorado to become a new creation in Christ as it is written in Colossians 3:5-10 “Put to death, therefore, whatever belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed, which is idolatry. Because of these, the wrath of God is coming. You used to walk in these ways, in the life you once lived. But now you must also rid yourselves of all such things as these: anger, rage, malice, slander, and filthy language from your lips. Do not lie to each other, since you have taken off your old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator”.
4. We now bless believers statewide with the wisdom that relationships matter as much as spiritual duties, as it is written in Matthew 5:23-24, “Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother and then come and offer your gift”.
5. We bless every Colorado follower of Jesus to now obey the command of Colossians 3:12-13, “Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do”.
6. We now bless the people of Colorado to live in peace and maintain harmony as written in Romans 12:17-18 which tells us to, “Repay no one evil for evil. Have regard for good things in the sight of all men. If it is possible, as much as depends on you, live peaceably with all men”.
7. We declare that followers of Jesus across Colorado are now blessed to rebuild relationships through the accountability guideline found in Galatians 6:1, “Brethren, if a man is overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual restore such a one, in a spirit of gentleness, considering yourself lest you also be tempted”.
8. We bless Believers statewide with greater emotional and spiritual maturity to protect relationships through love, forgiveness, and discretion rather than spreading hurtful gossip as written in Proverbs 17:9, “He who covers a transgression seeks love, but he who repeats a matter separates friends”.
9. We bless every Colorado believer to live out God’s will for their relationships as written in Philippians 2:3-4: “Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility, value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others”.
10. We bless the the sons and daughters of God’s Kingdom throughout Colorado with the revelation that unwavering love, demonstrated by being present for others, serves to strengthen bonds and helps rebuild trust and unity as written in Proverbs 17:17, “A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity”.
11. We bless every Colorado Believer with the wisdom to understand that forgiveness is an ongoing process, requiring continued grace and mercy as written in Luke 17:3-4, “So watch yourselves. If your brother or sister sins against you, rebuke them; and if they repent, forgive them. Even if they sin against you seven times in a day and seven times come back to you saying ‘I repent,’ you must forgive them”.

12. We bless God's chosen ones across Colorado to choose forgiveness, bathed in love, as it is written in Colossians 3:12-14, "Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity".
13. We thank You Jesus that Galatians 5:13 blesses every Colorado Believer with freedom from sin so that we can freely choose to love and serve others for, "You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh; rather, serve one another humbly in love".
14. We bless every Colorado marriage and family with the love described in 1 Corinthians 13:4-7, "Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. It does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged. It does not rejoice about injustice but rejoices whenever the truth wins out. Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance".
15. We bless every family in Colorado with the words of Psalm 133:1 which tell us, "How wonderful and pleasant it is when brothers live together in harmony".
16. We bless children of all ages across Colorado to abide by God's Ten Commandments including Exodus 20:12 which tells each child to, "Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the Lord your God is giving you".
17. We encourage every parent to nurture and support their children as we are commanded in Ephesians 6:4, "Fathers (and mothers), do not exasperate your children; instead, bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord".
18. We bless Colorado parents with the diligence and wisdom written in Proverbs 22:6 to, "Train up a child in the way he should go [and in keeping with his individual gift or bent], and when he is old he will not depart from it". AMPC.
19. We bless Colorado with an explosion of marriages that demonstrate sacrificial covenantal love as written in Ephesians 5:22 and 25, "Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands as you do to the Lord.... Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave Himself up for her".
20. As it is written in Galatians 6:3, we bless every Colorado family with grace and mercy to always be praying for and, "Carrying each other's burdens, and in this way, you will fulfill the law of Christ".
